Into Africa EASY Safari Hunt

You’re going on an exciting African Safari! Pay close attention to find out about these animals.

- I love the wetlands it’s where I belong: I have scales, sharp teeth and a tail many feet long!

- The lion and I, we don’t get along… but I’ll be the one laughing before very long

- Do I have hair? Make sure to look close… I’ll take on a crocodile to protect what I love most.

- I live in a pride, I think I’m really something- King of the Savannahs- the girls do the hunting...

- I have the Neck of a Giraffe, that’s my claim to fame, but I’m a lot smaller- so what is my name?

- I follow the birds to find my favorite treat. We work as a team, though some say I cheat.

- I love to swim- I can go for miles, but I’m particularly scared of long constricting reptiles

- The zebra and I- we go way back- which works out fine… until the lion attacks. What am I?
